This new site is designed for... from provincially funded schools... to communicate and collaborate with colleagues around the province...

Use it to discuss the provincial strategy, the learning management system, the Ontario Educational Resources Council. You may also use it to collaborate with colleagues, integrate information and communication technologies into your teaching and learning.

E-Community Ontario will host... sponsored by regional educational organizations and consortia, webinars, conferences, presentations and more... upon request.

If you are interested in proposing... please access the proposal form...

2. For those that are already registered in another e-Community, click the button indicating you already have an existing username and password, and click submit:

Registration Form

Select one of the following options:

I have an existing username and password

I do not have a username and password

Back Submit

3. You will see a list of communities that allow you to self-register – click the link for the “Blended Learning Provincial Community”. You will need to be approved by a moderator for the community, but this should happen within a day or two.
