

Education Services:

The Native Studies Networking Committee was established in September, 2009. The Committee consists of all Native Studies teachers and is led by the Aboriginal Education Coordinator to support the implementation of Native Studies courses in the secondary panel. The Committee will meet once in each of the two semesters.

